

A Longing For A Perfect World

Poetry Jr.

Alexis Gilbert

8

Generations Church, Tallahassee, FL

16

I long for a world

As perfect as the Garden of Eden

Free from all these "perfect" politicians

In this not so perfect world

In this world that hates

Giving undeserving others poor fates

Oh, I long for a world

Without raging wars at every turn

To all the poor kids across the globe

Sitting in shelters because of the fate given to them

Sick and in need of somebody to care

Little do they know that someone does

I long for a world where everyone knows

That God sent His one and only Son

To release us of our unrighteous sins

And with Him we can have a world full of Peace, Hope, and Love